

Initial Evaluation Process

Evaluation is defined as the procedures used to determine if a student has a disability and the nature and extent of the need for special education and related services.

Purpose: To identify learners who are eligible for special education and related services by determining the presence of a disability and the need for special education.

There are specific timelines that teams must follow for the evaluation process.

