Today's Agenda

- Reports
- Follow up on Old Business
- New Business
- Community Input
- Reflection

REPORTS:

Administration

- Bringing more students on campus, starting April 12--almost 300 students daily, Monday through Friday; Wednesday will return to being the short day at 12:45
- Transition grade levels back; by April 14, all grade levels will be back on campus
- Handbook updated and shared with staff; posted on website for families
- Summer learning hub for vulnerable students (sped, EL, low SES, struggling learners)
 - 8 teachers interested in teaching

New Superintendent will come on board

PTA

- Virtual Hustle for Health: ~$50,000 raised; we are very appreciative!
- Keiki Great Aloha Run: happening in April, encouraging students to join
- STEAM Day: April 18th
- Taking nominations for next year's PTA Board

Student Council

- Earth Day: Lorax reading, recycling, interview Mr. Banes, Earth Day Trivia, and Earth Day crafts
- Librarian's Day on April 5: SC created slides thanking Mrs. Tonaki while classes are creating a SuperHero book
- Virtual Clubs: looking for club advisors; if no one can supervise the classes, SC advisors will help

- Read Across America: SC made videos of themselves reading books for classes to watch/listen to

OLD BUSINESS:

- Vice-Chairperson - Dana Arakawa (Thank you!)
- No campus beautification this SY
 - Instead create awareness how families can help at home “plant a tree, recycle, etc.” to promote Earth Day--Student Council is working on this

NEW BUSINESS:

- Academic Plan SCC Approval (motion, second)
 - Need to get feedback & approval

ANYTHING FROM THE COMMUNITY:

- Mr. Isara shared positive support for the school--nothing to report at this time

REFLECTION:

- What went well?
Finished meeting on time
- What can we do better?
Try to get more members present

NEXT MEETING: April 28, 2021 at 3:00 pm (Next, next: May 26th)

Please email parent/community reps a reminder.
